Syros, Tinos & Mykonos Islands

DAY 1

Arrival in Syros

- Upon arrival at Syros International Airport, you will be met by our representative and transferred to your hotel.
- Balance of the day at leisure.
- Overnight stay in Syros.

DAY 2

Syros Island

- Breakfast at hotel and full day free in Syros.
- Known as the “Duchess of the Aegean,” Syros is a cultural and architectural gem.
- Syros, the elegant capital of the Cyclades, combines neoclassical grandeur with authentic island charm. Stroll through Ermoupolis, with its impressive mansions, marble-paved Miaouli Square, and the Apollo Theater, a miniature of Milan’s La Scala.
- The Ano Syros district, with its winding alleys and Catholic heritage, offers stunning views over the Aegean.
- For relaxation, head to beaches like Kini or Galissas, where calm waters and tavernas create the perfect setting for a leisurely day.
- Local specialties such as loukoumia (traditional sweets) and halvadopita are a must-try.
- Overnight stay in Syros.

DAY 3

Syros & Tinos

- Breakfast, check-out, and transfer to Syros port for your ferry to Tinos.
- Upon arrival, transfer to your hotel.
- Balance of the day at leisure.
- Overnight stay in Tinos.

DAY 4

Tinos Island

- Breakfast at hotel and full day free to enjoy Tinos at your own rhythm.
- Known as the “Holy Island” of Greece, Tinos is home to the famous Church of Panagia Evangelistria, an important pilgrimage site.
- Beyond its spiritual aura, the island charms visitors with its more than 40 traditional villages, such as Pyrgos, famous for its marble art, and Volax, set among surreal granite boulders.
- Tinos is also celebrated for its culinary traditions — don’t miss tasting local cheeses, artichokes, and sun-dried tomatoes.
- Its beaches, like Kolymbithra or Agios Fokas, offer both tranquil coves and lively spots perfect for swimming and relaxation.
- In recent years, Tinos has also gained a reputation as a trendy destination for younger travelers, with stylish bars, vibrant gatherings, and a flourishing nightlife scene that blends perfectly with the island’s authentic character.
- Overnight stay in Tinos.

DAY 5

Tinos & Mykonos

- Breakfast, check-out, and transfer to Tinos port for your ferry to Mykonos.
- Upon arrival, transfer to your hotel.
- Balance of the day at leisure.
- Overnight stay in Mykonos.

DAY 6

Mykonos Island

- Breakfast at hotel and day free to enjoy Mykonos at your own pace.
- Relax on some of the island's most famous beaches such as Psarou, Platis Gialos, or Elia, or seek out quieter coves for swimming and sunbathing.
- Wander through Ano Mera, a charming village with a traditional square and monastery, far from the island's lively town.
- In the evenings, soak in the cosmopolitan atmosphere of Mykonos Town with its boutiques, cocktail bars, and waterfront restaurants.
- Food lovers can savor local dishes such as kopanisti (spicy cheese spread), louza (cured pork), and fresh Aegean seafood. For wine enthusiasts, the island also has small but distinctive wineries worth discovering.
- With its unique mix of glamour, tradition, and natural beauty, Mykonos offers endless opportunities for relaxation, exploration, and unforgettable memories.
- Overnight stay in Mykonos.

DAY 7

Departure from Mykonos

- Breakfast at the hotel, morning at leisure for your last-minute shopping or strolling down the streets of Mykonos town.
- Depending on your departure flight, transfer to Mykonos International Airport for your domestic or direct flight to your international destination.
