DAY 4

Naxos

- Breakfast at hotel and full day free to explore Naxos.
- Naxos Island has the cosmopolitan air of a modern tourist resort while it has managed to preserve its local culture and traditional color, with a varied landscape, offering stunning vistas. In mythology, Naxos was linked with the wedding of Dionysus and Ariadne, a union that blessed the island with its fertility and its distinctive wine, which was highly prized in the ancient world. It is one of the few Cycladic islands, which has been inhabited continuously since the dawn of civilization. Naxos Island has the cosmopolitan air of a modern tourist resort while it has managed to preserve its local culture and traditional color. Its landscape is varied, offering stunning vistas. Where else in the Cyclades could you find lofty mountains, fertile valleys, plateaus, springs, rivers, caves and - off course - endless beaches? During your stay on the island, you shall visit Chora, the capital of the island, which is the main harbor and the administrative center of the island. However, if you really want to know Naxos you must also visit the inland areas and the villages in the mountains. The fertile valleys of Melanes & Eggares and the hills, such as Za, show the beauty of Naxos countryside. Of course, do not forget to visit as many beaches as possible, starting from Agios Georgios next to Chora and then Agios Prokopios, Agia Anna, Plaka, Mikri Vigla, Kastraki, Pyrgaki and many more
- Overnight stay in Naxos.
