DAY 1

Athens Wine Tasting Walking Tour

An Interactive Journey in Greek Wine Varieties & Wine Tradition

Step into the fascinating world of Greek wine — one of the oldest and most storied wine cultures in the world. Tracing its roots back over 6,500 years, Greece holds a proud place among Europe's first wine-producing regions. Today, a new generation of winemakers is breathing life into ancient vineyards, creating remarkable varieties that beautifully blend history and innovation.

Join us on a leisurely walking tour through the heart of Athens and uncover the aromas, flavors, and stories behind some of Greece's most celebrated grape varieties such as Xinomavro, Agiorgitiko, and Moschofilero.

- Your journey begins in the city's historical center, where you'll explore charming neighborhoods and visit three carefully selected wine bars — each with its own unique atmosphere and expertise.
- At every stop, you'll savor two different local wines (red, rosé, and white), paired with light snacks that perfectly complement the tasting experience.
- Along the way, your knowledgeable English-speaking facilitator will share fascinating insights into Greece's wine heritage, grape-growing regions, and tasting techniques — making this an experience that delights both beginners and wine enthusiasts alike.

Tour Highlights

- Sample six premium Greek wines representing diverse regions and grape varieties
- Enjoy a relaxed walking tour through the charming streets of Athens' historical center
- Experience authentic local wine bars that showcase the modern face of Greek winemaking
- Learn About Greek Winery & Culture
