Cape Sounio Sightseeing tour with Temple of Poseidon visit

Cape Sounio Half day Tour

DAY 1

Cape Sounio Half day Sightseeing Tour

A Scenic Coastal Escape

Embark on a breathtaking afternoon journey along the Athenian Riviera to Cape Sounion, home to the magnificent Temple of Poseidon. This scenic drive along the coastal road offers stunning views of the Saronic Gulf, passing through the elegant seaside suburbs of Glyfada, Vouliagmeni, and Varkiza.

- As we approach Cape Sounion, the temple's white marble columns rise dramatically from the cliffs, standing 197 feet above the sea. Built in the 5th century B.C., the Temple of Poseidon is one of Greece's most iconic landmarks, offering panoramic views—on a clear day, you can see up to seven islands. The temple's beauty has inspired poets for centuries, including Lord Byron, who famously carved his name into one of its columns.
- After exploring the temple, enjoy time to walk along the rocky promontory, soaking in the awe-inspiring coastal scenery before our return to Athens. This tour is a perfect opportunity to experience the natural beauty and rich history of southern Attica in just a few hours.
- Once this breathtaking journey along the Athenian Riviera and an unforgettable visit to the majestic Temple of Poseidon ends, we return to the hotel, leaving you with lasting memories of Athens' stunning coastal beauty and ancient heritage.
