DAY 1

Thessaloniki Wine Tasting Walking Tour

An Interactive Journey in Greek Wine Varieties & Wine Tradition

Discover the exceptional heritage of Greek winemaking, with roots dating back over 6,500 years, making Greece one of the oldest wine-producing regions in the world. It is no coincidence that the English word “wine” originates from the Greek word “oinos,” reflecting this deep cultural legacy. Today, modern Greek wine production has evolved impressively, offering a unique opportunity to explore outstanding local varieties.

- The Experience: Teams rotate across three premium wine spots, tasting selected Greek varieties such as Xinomavro, Agiorgitiko, and Moshofilero. Each participant enjoys 6 glasses of wine (red, rosé & white), paired with light snack platters at each stop, in a fully organized and supervised team-building experience.
- Duration: Approximately 2½ hours (afternoon), including a 4km guided walking tour
- Route: Thessaloniki historical & commercial center, visiting 3 selected wine bars

Tour Highlights

- Sample renowned Greek wines including Xinomavro, Agiorgitiko, and Moshofilero
